

Allies Gain On All Fronts Encouraging Report Made Today

Germans Evacuate Ladies Highway Owing to Heavy Artillery Drive From the French Forces

BRITISH SCORE SMALL NAVAL TRIUMPH

An important British naval victory and news of a bloodless French advance on the western front were officially announced today. The British admiralty gave out the news of the sinking of a German schooner and ten enemy patrol boats and also the capture of many prisoners. The French official statement declared that the French troops had taken German trenches on a 20 mile front and to a depth of more than a mile. They have extended their line to the Ailette river. Sixty-four men of the crew of the German schooner which was destroyed were taken prisoners. Copenhagen advices declared the name of the vessel was the Marie of Flensburg.

London, Nov. 3.—Ten enemy ships were destroyed by the British naval forces in the Kattegat, it was officially announced this afternoon. There were no British losses. Most of the enemy losses were patrol boats.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The British naval forces in the Kattegat have scored a victory over the German fleet. One German schooner, it is known, has been lost. The British Admiralty issued a statement saying, "Our naval forces operating in Kattegat have apparently been engaged. A patrol boat has been assigned to carry the prisoners."

Dispatches from Copenhagen said that a number of Germans who were wounded are being taken ashore. Encouraging statements were received from the west, east and Italian fronts. The French foreign office reported the capture of Courtecon, Czorny, Ailles and Chevreux.

The French also made a trench advance of 30 miles late last night. This movement was the result of the Wednesday and Thursday. "Our German retreat from the Aisne seeing to the pressure by French infantry and the effect of the French artillery the Germans have evacuated Chemin-des-Dames," the statement said. Some of the most intense fighting of the war as centered around Chemin-des-Dames. The position gives the French advantageous ground around Laon.

The statement recorded a French advance on the Ailette river. The advancing French found that the Germans in their "strategic retreat" had blown up all the bridges on the river. First announcement of the German withdrawal in the Aisne sector was made in last night's official statement, which was delayed beyond the usual hour of issuance.

Dispatches from Henry Wood on the French front that documents taken from prisoners showed that the Germans were rushing aerial manufacture in anticipation of a great American aerial offensive. The fighting of the Tagliamento front is expected to continue at least three or four days and will gradually lead up to the great battle. Russian dispatches today emphasized the declaration of the provincial government that the Russian lines on the eastern front will be maintained.

London, Nov. 3.—A new German sea invention—an electrically controlled sea boat—was reported by the Admiralty today as having made an unsuccessful attack on British patrol boats on the Belgian coast.

NEW DIRECTORY

Mr. McGue, under whose management Clearfield received its first real satisfactory city directory in 1915, is here from Pittsburgh to make the 1918 Clearfield Directory.

The 1918 issue will retain all the excellent features of the 1915 issue with several new and important features making the Clearfield 1918 issue second to no other directory in the country.

Having full confidence in Mr. McGue's integrity and ability to give them a good Directory the Clearfield business men are standing with Mr. McGue on this issue.

Reception Held For New U. B. Minister

Rev. Wissinger Extended Right Hand of Fellowship by Parishioners

The United Brethren congregation tendered a reception to their new pastor, Reverend Wissinger, and his family at their cosy little church on Dorey street Thursday evening.

The entire congregation was in attendance and it was indeed an enjoyable occasion.

Remarks were made by Rev. J. E. Gearhart, Rev. John P. McCurdy, Rev. B. J. Hummel, Rev. J. C. Collins and Rev. Wissinger. The important point emphasized in the remarks was the relationship between pastor and congregation. In order to do effective work the pastor must be supported in all his endeavors by every member of his congregation.

Before Rev. Wissinger arose to express his appreciation of the kind things said about him and the encouragement given. He was presented with a handsome bouquet of roses by Mrs. Hummel's bible class.

Following the speaking a social time was enjoyed, the ladies of the congregation serving a delicious luncheon as a fitting finale.

Slippery Pavement Causes Bad Fall

Corner Market and Second Scene of Serious Accident This Morning

Abe Jacobson was painfully hurt at the corner of Second and Market street about 8 o'clock this morning. The sidewalk in front of the Kennard & Snyder's had been washed off this morning and the water freezing to the flag stones made them slippery as glass. After rounding the corner from Market street Abe's feet slipped from under him and in falling he landed with his left arm on one of the points of the iron fence guarding the way opening into Paul Irwin's pool room.

The iron point penetrated his clothing and ran into the flesh under the arm a distance of two or more inches, inflicting an ugly and a particularly painful wound.

The injured young man was assisted to the office of Dr. Waterworth where he was given first aid and then taken to the hospital for further medical attention.

The injury is a serious one and will incapacitate the young man for several weeks.

12,000 MINERS TO STRIKE TONIGHT

Pittsburgh, Nov. 3.—Twelve thousand coal miners in the Pittsburgh field will be on strike by tonight, district union officials announced today. Approximately 8,000 miners went out at noon with more than 50 mines idled. The strike is spreading rapidly throughout the southeast Kansas coal field and by tonight it is believed that all the mines will be tied up. The mine-affected produced 30,000 tons daily.

HUNTINGDON HIGH HERE

Huntingdon High's Huskies struck town this morning in full force to do battle with the local pigskin chasers at the Driving park this afternoon.

It is a grand afternoon for football and lover of the sport will be treated to a snappy game if the Huntingdon players live up to their previous liability.

LOST—A small black purse containing seven dollars in change, somewhere on Market street between Fifth and Third street. Reward if returned to Mrs. Merrill Fin 1 Fifth street Clearfield.

LOST—A Stinson pin on Thursday evening somewhere between the High school and Fourth street. Valued as a gift. Please return to Progress N3-1.

JOHN BAIN WILL TAKE VOTE OF THE SOLDIERS

Appointed A Commissioner by Gov. Brumbaugh To Go To Camp Lee on Election Day

ALL SOLDIERS GET A VOTE

John M. Bain has been appointed by the Governor to go to Camp Lee to take the soldier vote of a certain portion of the Pennsylvania boys there. There will be seven Commissioners sent there to take the Pennsylvania vote but none of them will take the vote of the boys coming from their own territory. Mr. Bain was in Harrisburg yesterday getting the necessary instruction.

Soldiers will vote in the field wherever they may be located. Under an old law of 1864 where ever there are ten soldiers from the same state a commissioner is being sent to take their votes. Under this law no ballot is required. The men can vote by letter, they can write their preference on a piece of wrapping paper or on the bottom of a cigar box and it is legal. In short, as it has been explained to Mr. Bain, he can take their vote in any way except by voice. No matter where the military camp, if there are ten men from Pennsylvania, there will be a commissioner sent to take their votes.

John M. Chase A Rapid Fire Candidate

Depending on the Individual Voter to Be Elected Burgess

There is an old common sense truth that a man is not worthy of office if he does not work for it. It naturally follows that we all like to see a man get what he has worked hard to acquire. In public offices we like to see men who work hard to be elected. Men who are not afraid to go out among the voters and state their views on public questions and mingle with the worker in every walk of life.

John M. Chase has set the pace for the different candidates at the he was nominated on last primary day he has combed the city in an effort to see personally every voter and give that voter a chance to decide for himself whether he wanted to vote for him or not.

Mr. Chase has not depended upon any faction, any clique, any corporation influence or any other element except the individual voter to put him into this important office. His campaign has been an admirable one. He has done hard work and deserves recognition for it. He has earned the office by the interest he has shown in our municipal affairs.

CAN A WOMAN BLOT OUT AN ACCUSING PAST? QUESTION RAISED IN PETROVA PLAY

A photodrama of the most powerful moral stimulus is "The Waiting Soul," the Metro-Popular Plays and Players production with Mme. Petrova as star, which will be seen at the Globe theatre today.

Can a woman blot out an accusing past by means of good deeds? Will falsehood told by a mother influence her unborn child? These are some of the questions raised and answered in "The Waiting Soul."

Grace Vaughan, after a struggle with her conscience that reaches the very depths of her soul find that confession to her husband, whom she supposes ignorant of her past life, is the greatest privilege she has ever known. Though it she reaches heights of serenity unimagined before.

SPORT CHATTER

Ten said several of the White Sox stars will get new contracts next year costing for an increase in salary.

The boxing game has been restored in Cleveland, with the Cleveland A's as the prime mover in the sport.

Twenty-nine soccer teams will compete for the American Football Association Cup this year as against 17 teams last season.

Miss Adahana Shannette attended the play at Philadelphia last evening.

New Fire Equipment To Be Ordered Soon

Councilmanic Committee Decided On Purchase Last Evening

The committee of Council and the Fire Department consisting of Messrs. A. J. Hagerty, A. E. Leitzinger and Leroy Boyce representing Council and Chief Connelly and Assistant Fire Jay of the Fire Department met in the Council room last evening and after going over the bids and specifications received last Tuesday evening decided to recommend to Council the purchase of three pieces of motor fire apparatus for the Fire Department.

Bids were received from the Seagrave Company of Columbus, Ohio; the Indiana Motor Truck Company, of South Bend, Indiana; the Wallace Garage Company of Clearfield, and the Elmira Fire Engine Company of Elmira, N. Y.

After careful consideration of the merits of each proposition the committee unanimously decided to recommend the purchase of a Wallace City Service Hook and Ladder wagon, and two one-and-one-half ton Republic hose wagons represented by the Wallace Garage. The three pieces will cost approximately $11,480.

This equipment is very badly needed by the Fire Department and an effort will be made to raise a part of all of the funds necessary to purchase same by popular subscription.

With this addition to what we already possess Clearfield will have one of the best equipped fire departments in this section and a great advantage in the saving of property from fire and reduction of insurance rates will naturally result.

Three Sailors of U. S. Ship Michigan Lost

Small Boat Foundered or Capsized When Riding High Waves

Washington, Nov. 3.—At least three sailors are dead and more than a dozen missing following the foundering of a picket boat from the U. S. Steamer Michigan in an American port, it was officially announced today. Three bodies have been recovered. Secretary of the Navy Daniels has ordered a complete investigation of the accident. It is understood that the small boat capsized in the high seas. Apparently all in the boat were lost.

Secretary Daniels authorized the following statement: "The Navy Department announced that on October 30, the picket boat of the U. S. A. Steamer Michigan foundered. The finding of three of the bodies and the failure to find any trace of the boat or its occupants leads the Department to believe that they were drowned."

Many Women and Girls Have Not Registered

Go Now to the Home of Mrs. Warren Partridge to Perform Duty

The women and girls of Clearfield have not all registered. The men and boys of over 21 and up to 31 have all registered. Women and girls, what are you going to do about it?

Perhaps you think there is nothing that you can do. That is where you are mistaken. There are hundreds of little things that you can do for your country. There are hundreds of little things that will have to be done in the near future. There is little work for you to do immediately. It may be a long time before Uncle Sam calls upon you to do anything but when he calls would you not like to think that your name is on the roll and that they do not have to hunt for you as they would a draft dodger. Let there be no slackers among the women and girls. Go Monday or Tuesday to the home of Mrs. Warren Partridge on Front street and find out what you can do to help win the war.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 2.—Gaston Bullock Means was formally charged with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King here today when the grand jury returned an indictment.

Mr. King, Means' benefactor and friend, was killed at Blackwelder Springs, near here by a rifle shot. Prosecution and defense at once began sparring for location and jury personnel of the trial. The indictment followed three days' investigation by the jury which examined a score of witnesses, including a group of Chicago bankers and witnesses.

TIMELY WINDOW DISPLAY

One of the most timely window displays that has been shown by any of our merchants for some time is the one in the smaller window of the Ideal clothing store.

The idea for the trim is a showing of hunters' clothing, and everything that a hunter needs other than the gun and the game is very cleverly brought out by the trimmer.

NEW POOL ROOM

FIVE AKRON MEN LAND HERE IN A BALLOON

Started From Akron 2:15 This Morning and Landed in Lawrence Twp. at 10:15 A. M.

AN UNEVENTFUL AIR VOYAGE

There may be worse things than being set adrift on the high seas with no prospect ahead except that of being washed up upon the shores of a desert island inhabited by cannibals, but we doubt if any experience would be more thrilling than that had by five young men attached to the Goodyear Naval Aviation Detachment at Akron, Ohio, today.

These five young men, Messrs. Jack Yelton, H. R. Geddes, John Gibson, Matthew Corbett and Harry Emmantrout landed from a naval observation balloon on the old Huey Mullen farm in Lawrence township, now occupied by Harry Shugarts, at ten fifteen this morning after an uneventful journey from the city of rubber tires. They left Akron at 2:15 A. M. this morning making the trip through the air a little less than eight hours.

The Luthersburg section of the country was thrilled with excitement this morning about nine o'clock when they sighted the huge aerial ship making its way swiftly through the air and for a time there were many telephone calls at The Progress office wanting to know the meaning of the performance. After they passed Luthersburg trace was lost of the big bird until it slowly descended to earth on the Shugarts farm where the young men requisitioned the Shugarts team and hauled the bag and basket into town from where it was shipped back to Akron on the 1:15 express.

The young men in the balloon were evidently in the naval service as they bore that insignia. All were quite non-committal as to their mission but it is presumed that it was a practice flight by the men in training at the Goodyear aviation grounds. No officer accompanied the crew. When asked why they landed at Clearfield they stated that they had used all their ballast and decided to land at the first large town sighted. Luthersburg did not quite suit their idea of a big town but they were quite well suited by the accommodations found at Clearfield. The young men can consider themselves quite fortunate that they did not land in the heart of the state forests only seven or eight miles distant from here.

The basket in which the men rode was not more than six feet in diameter and of ordinary willow weave construction. When they came to earth all they had to do was leave the gas out of the bag, roll the bag up in a roll, dump it into the basket and they were ready to travel. They were not heavily dressed, wearing only the regular army trousers, leggings and large caps and old fashioned reefers.

High School Masquerade Nice Social Affair

Merry Young People Dance and Frolic in Fantastic Costume

A masquerade party was given at new High school building last evening under the auspices of the Senior class for the pupils of the High school.

A grand march of all the masqueraders in their fancy, unique, clever and grotesque costumes, led by Miss Shultz and William Boag, President of the Senior class, through the building began the festivities of the evening.

Then followed the awarding of the prizes. The first prize was won by Miss Pauline Neff and Miss Kathryn Musser for being the most original couple. Second, by Nathan Smith who wore the most original individual costume, and the third prize was taken by Miss Eleanor Martin who had the most elaborate costume. The prizes awarded were boxes of candy.

A short program was then rendered which included several fine selections by the orchestra, a beautiful solo by Prof Van Osten and a clever reading by Miss Elizabeth Reed, of Pine Grove.

After this the time was given over to dancing and playing games. Miss Olive Gulich and Harold Knight furnished music for the dancers. About ten thirty the Senior boys served a light lunch.

HARVEY SMITH VERY ILL

No Answer to New York Mayoralty Contest Before The Polls Close

Progressive Element Unites on Mitchell But Bennett, Hyman and Hillquit Are Strong

New York, Nov. 1.—A large question mark symbolizes the political situation in New York city with the near approach of the close of the municipal campaign, and the answer of the voters to the inquiry who will be mayor, which is to be made at the election next Tuesday is awaited with an interest surpassing that felt in the metropolis in many years.

There are several elements in the contest which make it impossible to forecast the result with any degree of certainty. Chief among these is the fact that there are four candidates in the running, with three of them to divide the Republican and Democratic votes in relative proportions that will not be known until after the ballots are counted. The fourth candidate, Morris Hillquit, is expected to receive the solid support of the Socialist party, which may prove to be far from a negligible quantity in determining the contest.

John P. Mitchell, Democrat, who had filled a number of important offices previously, and who was nominated on a fusion ticket in 1913 to succeed William J. Gaynor, and elected by a tremendous majority, is again, by grace of appointment by a Citizen Committee of Two Hundred and Fifty, a fusion candidate.

Not to be outdone in respect to combination of civic organizations and civic virtues in behalf of its prospective candidate, Tammany also decided this year to try its hand at fusion. In accordance with this decision, Leader Murphy invited various independent political groups to go into conference with him. The idea was to prove that there were good citizens on one side as well as on the other, and that those on the Tammany side, with a view to the welfare of the city, were determined to overthrow Mayor Mitchell.

The influence of Brooklyn leaders proved sufficiently strong in the conference to secure the choice of Council Judge John F. Hyman as the Democratic candidate for the mayoralty. Judge Hyman came to Tammany not only as a surprise, but as something of a shock. He was scarcely known to the rank and file of Mr. Murphy's followers. But after having inaugurated

In the last mayoralty election in New York the vote stood: Mitchell, Fusion, 355,181; McCall, Democrat, 222,919; Russell, Socialist, 32,057; Walter, Socialist-Labor, 16,477; Raymond, Prohibitionist, 12,137. There was no Republican in the field then. The Republican in the field now is considered the most doubtful factor in the equation.

Milk Shortage Faces Clearfield

Milk Depot Appeals to Housewives to Cut Down Use of Milk

Clearfield faces a shortage of milk not alone because it has lost the real thing at the depot, but because of the shortage of milk at the depot.

Milk Depot appeals to the housewives to cut down their use of milk in half until the supply gets better. The Clearfield Milk Depot will make every effort to supply families with children with at least half of the usual supply and in urgent cases that is required but families who children are asked as a patriotic duty to cut their consumption of milk to the lowest possible quantity for the next week or ten days. The Milk Depot is very anxious to have families with children get an adequate supply of milk and makes this appeal.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOMINATIONS

At the regular meeting of Clearfield Fire Department held in the hall last evening the following nominations were made for the officers to be filled at the election to be held at the regular December meeting:

Chief—J. D. Connelly.
First Assistant—Ira Jay.
Second Assistant—Leslie F. Hoyer.
Otis Knepp.

Secretary—A. P. Spangler.
Treasurer—Ed. B. Chase.

A committee composed of the following members was appointed to arrange for the annual memorial sermon for the Department and to select the church and minister to deliver the sermon on that occasion.

S. B. Smith, chairman; Walter Merrey, Stewart Jones and Edward Viehlander.

WILL GET NEW STATION

According to the Curwensville Standard the B. & P. Ry. Company will build a new station at Curwensville next spring. It is a badly needed improvement.

To The Voters of Clearfield County:--

The issues of the District Attorney fight are too well known to be affected by the statement of any candidate.

And whether the present District Attorney is entitled to two terms does not rest on the records of the District Attorneys for the past forty years, but on the record of the office holder running for re-election.

I have lived in Duois for a quarter of a century. During that time I have tried to make my word good, and to be square.

If I am elected District Attorney I give my word:--

That I will not be subservient to, or in any degree controlled by any man or men, or any clique, faction or organization.

That I go into office unpledged on any matter, or upon the conduct of the duties of that office.

That I, myself, will be District Attorney. That I will not at the tax payers' expense employ lawyers to do the work for which I am paid, nor will I have Assistant District Attorneys appointed after by the case or by the year.

That my election to the office of District Attorney shall constitute a contract between me and the people, by the terms of which the District Attorney is bound to act for the common good of all, and to do himself the work for which he is paid. No extra expense should, or will be put upon the other party to the contract without its consent. To place upon the people such extra expense as for the District Attorney to raise his own salary, already generously fixed at $3023.00 per year. In the past four years this raise of salary has amounted to over $1200.00 each year, or two-fifths of the yearly salary fixed by law. If the law intended the yearly salary to be two-fifths larger, the Act of Assembly would so provide.

If a farmer takes a horse to be shod he expects to pay the blacksmith to do the job. He should not have to pay several more blacksmiths called in to help out. The man who takes the job should see it through.

In conclusion I want to say that I have conducted my campaign in a manner that is both clean and fair. And that no printed or spoken word of mine has injected personalities therein, nor savored of throwing mud.

Thousands Of Americans Fighting With The French And The British

So Anxious to Help Crush the Kaiser They Could Not Wait for the U. S. to Declare War

By J. W. Pegler

American Field Headquarters, France, Oct. 12.—(By Mail)—Ex-patriated, cut off from their own country by the piffling technicalities of our laws, America's first war heroes are still fighting and dying in the ranks of the allies. They hope some day to be restored to their rights as Americans. But while they can't do anything about it they can keep on killing the Boches.

Most of the Americans already fighting in this war are in either the Canadian Army or the British or French flying corps. Their record is a proud one, marked by decorations from the British and French. One American at least has won the Victoria Cross, England's highest recognition of heroism, many have been decorated with the Military Cross and hundreds have been given the French War Cross.

Major Alexander Rassmussen, of Portland, Ore., and Lieutenant Jack Manning, of Florida, both veterans of the Philippines, passed through this camp the other day on their way to train a new contingent of Americans in the British style of fighting. They have been in the trenches for months during which time both were wounded, the United States army has not taken them back. They came here wearing their American service ribbons on British uniforms.

American officers were surprised to learn that these two soldiers in the King's uniform were Americans. Manning met some of his old comrades on the United States Infantry and they could scarcely believe that the Canadian soldier was the man they campaigned with in the Philippines.

In London I knew scores of American soldiers who simply could not wait for the United States to declare war on the Boche and so joined the British. They ran a bluff—expecting only that their own country would send them back as instructors when we entered the war. By this time many of those fellows have been killed or badly wounded.

Lieut. A. H. Pannill, a Chatham, Virginia, boy, won the British Military Cross at the battle of Vimy Ridge on last Easter Monday by sheer bravery and leadership. He was wounded, and after recovering, joined the Royal Flying Corps. Today I received a letter from him saying:

"I am trimmed up in bed with both legs up in the air in a sling. It seems years since I came to France with the Royal Flying Corps in the middle of July. I have helped bring down several Hunns and took part in the 'low-strafe' on Aug. 15, flying low behind the lines, shooting up and dispersing troops, transports and artillery. The machine guns on the ground were as thick as hornets, squirting lead at us like fountain pens from every shell-hole. I came out all right but they got me a few days later. Some-

my contacts were shot away and we crashed to the ground behind our lines. I don't see why we weren't killed outright but outside of having some bruises and both thighs fractured I am O. K. I am very comfortable and hope soon to be granted leave to the United States and Canada."

Manning told me that Frank Burr, of Cleveland, a Canadian lieutenant, broke into tears as Manning said good-bye on the night he took the train for the American camp.

Burr was just going up to the trenches again after a short rest. From day to day he had been hoping to get word of his transfer to the American Army—his own Army. It didn't arrive.

Burr is one of the very last of the Americans who fought in the so-called Lost Legion of Americans. The rest have been either killed or incapacitated for life.

Our Army here needs instructors so badly that British and French soldiers are carrying on the work. In the British Army there are scores of Americans—their number is dwindling daily—who want to offer their skill, and their lives to the country.

A legal technicality bars them and deprives our Sammies here of their sympathetic instruction.

DUKE SHIELDS, GRAMPAN, DROPS DEAD ON STREET

Duke Shields, a resident of Grampian, dropped dead Tuesday morning while on his way to his work at the Stronach brick yard. Mr. Shields was in front of the residence of Newton reeman, in Grampian, when he fell to the ground. He was carried into a building nearby, but life was extinct when a physician examined him.

Shields was a widower, his wife having died some time ago.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50

WIFE OF FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Elizabeth McCrea Connelly, wife of Hugh L. Connelly, formerly of Clearfield, passed peacefully into rest eternal at the South Side hospital in Pittsburgh, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, aged about 42 years.

She had been in the hospital for several months and about six weeks ago came north from her home in St. Petersburg, Florida, for medical treatment and to consult a specialist.

She was removed to the South Side hospital some two weeks ago and since that time her decline was very rapid and the end came yesterday afternoon. The cause of her death was Bright's disease.

She is survived by her husband, one son and two daughters, her mother Mrs. W. S. McCrea, and two brothers, all of St. Petersburg, Fla.

The funeral will be held from her late home at 913 Union avenue, North Side, Pittsburgh, Monday morning with interment in Catholic cemetery at Butler, Pa.

Allies Gain On All Fronts Encouraging Report Made Today

Germans Evacuate Ladies Highway Owing to Heavy Artillery Drive From the French Forces

BRITISH SCORE SMALL NAVAL TRIUMPH

An important British naval victory and news of a bloodless French advance on the western front were officially announced today. The British admiralty gave out the news of the sinking of a German schooner and ten enemy patrol boats and also the capture of many prisoners. The French official statement declared that the French troops had taken German trenches on a 20 mile front and to a depth of more than a mile. They have extended their line to the Ailette river. Sixty-four men of the crew of the German schooner which was destroyed were taken prisoners. Copenhagen advices declared the name of the vessel was the Marie of Flensburg.

London, Nov. 3.—Ten enemy ships were destroyed by the British naval forces in the Kattegat, it was officially announced this afternoon. There were no British losses. Most of the enemy losses were patrol boats.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The British naval forces in the Kattegat have scored a victory over the German fleet. One German schooner, it is known, has been lost. The British Admiralty issued a statement saying, "Our naval forces operating in Kattegat have apparently been engaged. A patrol boat has been assigned to carry the prisoners."

Dispatches from Copenhagen said that a number of Germans who were wounded are being taken ashore. Encouraging statements were received from the west, east and Italian fronts. The French foreign office reported the capture of Courtecon, Czorny, Ailles and Chevreux.

The French also made a trench advance of 30 miles late last night. This movement was the result of the Wednesday and Thursday. "Our German retreat from the Aisne seeing to the pressure by French infantry and the effect of the French artillery the Germans have evacuated Chemin-des-Dames," the statement said. Some of the most intense fighting of the war as centered around Chemin-des-Dames. The position gives the French advantageous ground around Laon.

The statement recorded a French advance on the Ailette river. The advancing French found that the Germans in their "strategic retreat" had blown up all the bridges on the river. First announcement of the German withdrawal in the Aisne sector was made in last night's official statement, which was delayed beyond the usual hour of issuance.

Dispatches from Henry Wood on the French front that documents taken from prisoners showed that the Germans were rushing aerial manufacture in anticipation of a great American aerial offensive. The fighting of the Tagliamento front is expected to continue at least three or four days and will gradually lead up to the great battle. Russian dispatches today emphasized the declaration of the provincial government that the Russian lines on the eastern front will be maintained.

London, Nov. 3.—A new German sea invention—an electrically controlled sea boat—was reported by the Admiralty today as having made an unsuccessful attack on British patrol boats on the Belgian coast.

NEW DIRECTORY

Mr. McGue, under whose management Clearfield received its first real satisfactory city directory in 1915, is here from Pittsburgh to make the 1918 Clearfield Directory.

The 1918 issue will retain all the excellent features of the 1915 issue with several new and important features making the Clearfield 1918 issue second to no other directory in the country.

Having full confidence in Mr. McGue's integrity and ability to give them a good Directory the Clearfield business men are standing with Mr. McGue on this issue.

Reception Held For New U. B. Minister

Rev. Wissinger Extended Right Hand of Fellowship by Parishioners

The United Brethren congregation tendered a reception to their new pastor, Reverend Wissinger, and his family at their cosy little church on Dorey street Thursday evening.

The entire congregation was in attendance and it was indeed an enjoyable occasion.

Remarks were made by Rev. J. E. Gearhart, Rev. John P. McCurdy, Rev. B. J. Hummel, Rev. J. C. Collins and Rev. Wissinger. The important point emphasized in the remarks was the relationship between pastor and congregation. In order to do effective work the pastor must be supported in all his endeavors by every member of his congregation.

Before Rev. Wissinger arose to express his appreciation of the kind things said about him and the encouragement given. He was presented with a handsome bouquet of roses by Mrs. Hummel's bible class.

Following the speaking a social time was enjoyed, the ladies of the congregation serving a delicious luncheon as a fitting finale.

Slippery Pavement Causes Bad Fall

Corner Market and Second Scene of Serious Accident This Morning

Abe Jacobson was painfully hurt at the corner of Second and Market street about 8 o'clock this morning. The sidewalk in front of the Kennard & Snyder's had been washed off this morning and the water freezing to the flag stones made them slippery as glass. After rounding the corner from Market street Abe's feet slipped from under him and in falling he landed with his left arm on one of the points of the iron fence guarding the way opening into Paul Irwin's pool room.

The iron point penetrated his clothing and ran into the flesh under the arm a distance of two or more inches, inflicting an ugly and a particularly painful wound.

The injured young man was assisted to the office of Dr. Waterworth where he was given first aid and then taken to the hospital for further medical attention.

The injury is a serious one and will incapacitate the young man for several weeks.

12,000 MINERS TO STRIKE TONIGHT

Pittsburgh, Nov. 3.—Twelve thousand coal miners in the Pittsburgh field will be on strike by tonight, district union officials announced today. Approximately 8,000 miners went out at noon with more than 50 mines idled. The strike is spreading rapidly throughout the southeast Kansas coal field and by tonight it is believed that all the mines will be tied up. The mine-affected produced 30,000 tons daily.

HUNTINGDON HIGH HERE

JOHN BAIN WILL TAKE VOTE OF THE SOLDIERS

Appointed A Commissioner by Gov. Brumbaugh To Go To Camp Lee on Election Day

ALL SOLDIERS GET A VOTE

John M. Bain has been appointed by the Governor to go to Camp Lee to take the soldier vote of a certain portion of the Pennsylvania boys there. There will be seven Commissioners sent there to take the Pennsylvania vote but none of them will take the vote of the boys coming from their own territory. Mr. Bain was in Harrisburg yesterday getting the necessary instruction.

Soldiers will vote in the field wherever they may be located. Under an old law of 1864 where ever there are ten soldiers from the same state a commissioner is being sent to take their votes. Under this law no ballot is required. The men can vote by letter, they can write their preference on a piece of wrapping paper or on the bottom of a cigar box and it is legal. In short, as it has been explained to Mr. Bain, he can take their vote in any way except by voice. No matter where the military camp, if there are ten men from Pennsylvania, there will be a commissioner sent to take their votes.

John M. Chase A Rapid Fire Candidate

Depending on the Individual Voter to Be Elected Burgess

There is an old common sense truth that a man is not worthy of office if he does not work for it. It naturally follows that we all like to see a man get what he has worked hard to acquire. In public offices we like to see men who work hard to be elected. Men who are not afraid to go out among the voters and state their views on public questions and mingle with the worker in every walk of life.

John M. Chase has set the pace for the different candidates at the he was nominated on last primary day he has combed the city in an effort to see personally every voter and give that voter a chance to decide for himself whether he wanted to vote for him or not.

Mr. Chase has not depended upon any faction, any clique, any corporation influence or any other element except the individual voter to put him into this important office. His campaign has been an admirable one. He has done hard work and deserves recognition for it. He has earned the office by the interest he has shown in our municipal affairs.

CAN A WOMAN BLOT OUT AN ACCUSING PAST? QUESTION RAISED IN PETROVA PLAY

A photodrama of the most powerful moral stimulus is "The Waiting Soul," the Metro-Popular Plays and Players production with Mme. Petrova as star, which will be seen at the Globe theatre today.

Can a woman blot out an accusing past by means of good deeds? Will falsehood told by a mother influence her unborn child? These are some of the questions raised and answered in "The Waiting Soul."

Grace Vaughan, after a struggle with her conscience that reaches the very depths of her soul find that confession to her husband, whom she supposes ignorant of her past life, is the greatest privilege she has ever known. Though it she reaches heights of serenity unimagined before.

SPORT CHATTER

Tis said several of the White Sox stars will get new contracts next year calling for an increase in salary.

The boxing game has been restored in Cleveland, with the Cleveland A's as the prime mover in the sport.

Twenty-nine soccer teams will compete for the American Football Association Cup this year as against 27 teams last season.

Miss Adahana Shannette attended the play at Philadelphia last evening.

New Fire Equipment To Be Ordered Soon

Councilmanic Committee Decided On Purchasing Last Evening

The committee of Council and the Fire Department consisting of Messrs. A. J. Hagerty, A. E. Leitzinger and Leroy Boyce representing Council and Chief Connelly and Assistant Fire Jay of the Fire Department met in the Council room last evening and after going over the bids and specifications received last Tuesday evening decided to recommend to Council the purchase of three pieces of motor fire apparatus for the Fire Department.

Bids were received from the Seagrave Company of Columbus, Ohio; the Indiana Motor Truck Company, of South Bend, Indiana; the Wallace Garage Company of Clearfield, and the Lorraine Fire Engine Company of Elmira, N. Y.

After careful consideration of the merits of each proposition the committee unanimously decided to recommend the purchase of a Lorraine City Service Hook and Ladder wagon, and two one-and-one-half ton Republic hose wagons represented by the Wallace Garage. The three pieces will cost approximately $11,480.

This equipment is very badly needed by the Fire Department and an effort will be made to raise a part of all of the funds necessary to purchase same by popular subscription.

With this addition to what we already possess Clearfield will have one of the best equipped fire departments in this section and a great advantage in the saving of property from fire and reduction of insurance rates will naturally result.

Three Sailors of U. S. Ship Michigan Lost

Small Boat Foundered or Capsized When Riding High Waves

Washington, Nov. 3.—At least three sailors are dead and more than a dozen missing following the foundering of a picket boat from the U. S. Steamer Michigan in an American port, it was officially announced today. Three bodies have been recovered. Secretary of the Navy Daniels has ordered a complete investigation of the accident. It is understood that the small boat capsized in the high seas. Apparently all in the boat were lost.

Secretary Daniels authorized the following statement: "The Navy Department announced that on October 30, the picket boat of the U. S. A. Steamer Michigan foundered. The finding of three of the bodies and the failure to find any trace of the boat or its occupants leads the Department to believe that they were drowned."

Many Women and Girls Have Not Registered

Go Now to the Home of Mrs. Warren Partridge to Perform Duty

The women and girls of Clearfield have not all registered. The men and boys of over 21 and up to 31 have all registered. Women and girls, what are you going to do about it? Perhaps you think there is nothing that you can do. That is where you are mistaken. There are hundreds of little things that you can do for your country. There are hundreds of little things that will have to be done in the near future. There is little work for you to do immediately. It may be a long time before Uncle Sam calls upon you to do anything but when he calls would you not like to think that your name is on the roll and that they do not have to hunt for you as they would a draft dodger. Let there be no slackers among the women and girls. Go Monday or Tuesday to the home of Mrs. Warren Partridge on Front street and find out what you can do to help win the war.

MEANS WILL FACE CHARGE OF MURDER

Concord, N. C., Nov. 2.—Gaston Bullock Means was formally charged with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King here today when the grand jury returned an indictment.

Mr. King, Means' benefactor and friend, was killed at Blackwelder Springs, near here by a rifle shot.

Prosecution and defense at once began sparring for location and jury personnel of the trial. The indictment followed three days' investigation by the jury which examined a score of witnesses, including a group of Chicago bankers and witnesses.

TIMELY WINDOW DISPLAY

One of the most timely window displays that has been shown by any of our merchants for some time is the one in the smaller window of the Loyal clothing store.

The idea for the trim is a showing of hunters' clothing, and everything that a hunter needs other than the gun and the game is very cleverly brought out by the trimmer.

FIVE AKRON MEN LAND HERE IN A BALLOON

Started From Akron 2:15 This Morning and Landed in Lawrence Twp. at 10:15 A. M.

AN UNEVENTFUL AIR VOYAGE

There may be worse things than being set adrift on the high seas with no prospect ahead except that of being washed up upon the shores of a desert island inhabited by cannibals, but we doubt if any experience would be more thrilling than that had by five young men attached to the Goodyear Naval Aviation Detachment at Akron, Ohio, today.

These five young men, Messrs. Jack Yelton, H. R. Geddes, John Gibson, Matthew Corbett and Harry Emmantrout landed from a naval observation balloon on the old Huey Mullen farm in Lawrence township, now occupied by Harry Shugarts, at ten fifteen this morning after an uneventful journey from the city of rubber tires. They left Akron at 2:15 A. M. this morning making the trip through the air a little less than eight hours.

The Luthersburg section of the country was thrilled with excitement this morning about nine o'clock when they sighted the huge aerial ship making its way swiftly through the air and for a time there were many telephone calls at The Progress office wanting to know the meaning of the performance. After they passed Luthersburg trace was lost of the big bird until it slowly descended to earth on the Shugarts farm where the young men requisitioned the Shugarts team and hauled the bag and basket into town from where it was shipped back to Akron on the 1:15 express.

The young men in the balloon were evidently in the naval service as they bore that insignia. All were quite non-committal as to their mission but it is presumed that it was a practice flight by the men in training at the Goodyear aviation grounds. No officer accompanied the crew. When asked why they landed at Clearfield they stated that they had used all their ballast and decided to land at the first large town sighted. Luthersburg did not quite suit their idea of a big town but they were quite well suited by the accommodations found at Clearfield. The young men can consider themselves quite fortunate that they did not land in the heart of the state forests only seven or eight miles distant from here.

The basket in which the men rode was not more than six feet in diameter and of ordinary willow weave construction. When they came to earth all they had to do was leave the gas out of the bag, roll the bag up in a roll, dump it into the basket and they were ready to travel. They were not heavily dressed, wearing only the regular army trousers, leggings and large caps and old fashioned reefers.

High School Masquerade Nice Social Affair

Merry Young People Dance and Frolic in Fantastic Costume

A masquerade party was given at new High school building last evening under the auspices of the Senior class for the pupils of the High school.

A grand march of all the masqueraders in their fancy, unique, clever and grotesque costumes, led by Miss Shultz and William Boag, President of the Senior class, through the building began the festivities of the evening.

Then followed the awarding of the prizes. The first prize was won by Miss Pauline Neff and Miss Kathryn Musser for being the most original couple. Second, by Nathan Smith who wore the most original individual costume, and the third prize was taken by Miss Eleanor Martin who had the most elaborate costume. The prizes awarded were boxes of candy.

A short program was then rendered which included several fine selections by the orchestra, a beautiful solo by Prof Van Osten and a clever reading by Miss Elizabeth Reed, of Pine Grove.

After this the time was given over to dancing and playing games. Miss Olive Gulich and Harold Knight furnished music for the dancers. About ten thirty the Senior boys served a light lunch.

HARVEY SMITH VERY ILL

Harvey T. Smith, the Civil War veteran and for a number of years jury commissioner of this county and health officer of Curwensville, is lying at his home seriously ill with little prospects of recovery. Mr. Smith is afflicted with hardening of the arteries.—Curwensville Herald.

No Answer to New York Mayoralty Contest Before The Polls Close

Progressive Element Unites on Mitchell But Bennett, Hyman and Hillquit Are Strong

New York, Nov. 1.—A large question mark symbolizes the political situation in New York city with the near approach of the close of the municipal campaign, and the answer of the voters to the inquiry who will be mayor, which is to be made at the election next Tuesday is awaited with an interest surpassing that felt in the metropolis in many years.

There are several elements in the contest which make it impossible to forecast the result with any degree of certainty. Chief among these is the fact that there are four candidates in the running, with three of them to divide the Republican and Democratic votes in relative proportions that will not be known until after the ballots are counted. The fourth candidate, Morris Hillquit, is expected to receive the solid support of the Socialist party, which may prove to be far from a negligible quantity in determining the contest.

John P. Mitchell, Democrat, who had filled a number of important offices previously, and who was nominated on a fusion ticket in 1913 to succeed William J. Gaynor, and elected by a tremendous majority, is again, by grace of appointment by a Citizen Committee of Two Hundred and Fifty, a fusion candidate.

Not to be outdone in respect to combination of civic organizations and civic virtues in behalf of its prospective candidate, Tammany also decided this year to try its hand at fusion. In accordance with this decision, Leader Murphy invited various independent political groups to go into conference with him. The idea was to prove that there were good citizens on one side as well as on the other, and that those on the Tammany side, with a view to the welfare of the city, were determined to overthrow Mayor Mitchell.

The influence of Brooklyn leaders proved sufficiently strong in the conference to secure the choice of Council Judge John F. Hyman as the Democratic candidate for the mayoralty. Judge Hyman came to Tammany not only as a surprise, but as something of a shock. He was scarcely known to the rank and file of Mr. Murphy's followers. But after having inaugurated

Milk Depot Appeals to Housewives to Cut Down Use of Milk

Clearfield faces a shortage of milk not alone because it has lost the real thing at the depot, but because of the shortage of milk at the depot.

Milk Depot the supply is running short and he has asked that all customers cut their usual purchases in half until the supply gets better. The Clearfield Milk Depot will make every effort to supply families with children with at least half of the usual supply and in urgent cases that is required but families who children are asked as a patriotic duty to cut their consumption of milk to the lowest possible quantity for the next week or ten days. The Milk Depot is very anxious to have families with children get an adequate supply of milk and makes this appeal.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOMINATIONS

At the regular meeting of Clearfield Fire Department held in the hall last evening the following nominations were made for the officers to be filled at the election to be held at the regular December meeting:

Chief—J. D. Connelly.
First Assistant—Ira Jay.
Second Assistant—Leslie F. Hoyer.
Otis Knepp.

Secretary—A. P. Spangler.
Treasurer—Ed. B. Chase.

A committee composed of the following members was appointed to arrange for the annual memorial sermon for the Department and to select the church and minister to deliver the sermon on that occasion.

S. B. Smith, chairman; Walter Merrey, Stewart Jones and Edward Viehlofer.

To The Voters of Clearfield County:--

The issues of the District Attorney fight are too well known to be affected by the statement of any candidate.

And whether the present District Attorney is entitled to two terms does not rest on the records of the District Attorneys for the past forty years, but on the record of the office holder running for re-election.

I have lived in Duois for a quarter of a century. During that time I have tried to make my word good, and to be square.

If I am elected District Attorney I give my word:--

That I will not be subservient to, or in any degree controlled by any man or men, or any clique, faction or organization.

That I go into office unpledged on any matter, or upon the conduct of the duties of that office.

That I, myself, will be District Attorney. That I will not at the tax payers' expense employ lawyers to do the work for which I am paid, nor will I have Assistant District Attorneys appointed after by the case or by the year.

That my election to the office of District Attorney shall constitute a contract between me and the people, by the terms of which the District Attorney is bound to act for the common good of all, and to do himself the work for which he is paid. No extra expense should, or will be put upon the other party to the contract without its consent. To place upon the people such extra expense as for the District Attorney to raise his own salary, already generously fixed at $3023.00 per year. In the past four years this raise of salary has amounted to over $1200.00 each year, or two-fifths of the yearly salary fixed by law. If the law intended the yearly salary to be two-fifths larger, the Act of Assembly would so provide.

If a farmer takes a horse to be shod he expects to pay the blacksmith to do the job. He should not have to pay several more blacksmiths called in to help out. The man who takes the job should see it through.

In conclusion I want to say that I have conducted my campaign in a manner that is both clean and fair. And that no printed or spoken word of mine has injected personalities therein, nor savored of throwing mud.

Thousands Of Americans Fighting With The French And The British

So Anxious to Help Crush the Kaiser They Could Not Wait for the U. S. to Declare War

By J. W. Pegler

American Field Headquarters, France, Oct. 12.—(By Mail)—Expatriated, cut off from their own country by the piffling technicalities of our laws, America's first war heroes are still fighting and dying in the ranks of the allies. They hope some day to be restored to their rights as Americans. But while they can't do anything about it they can keep on killing the Boches.

Most of the Americans already fighting in this war are in either the Canadian Army or the British or French flying corps. Their record is a proud one, marked by decorations from the British and French. One American at least has won the Victoria Cross, England's highest recognition of heroism, many have been decorated with the Military Cross and hundreds have been given the French War Cross.

Major Alexander Rasmussen, of Portland, Ore., and Lieutenant Jack Manning, of Florida, both veterans of the Philippines, passed through this camp the other day on their way to train a new contingent of Americans in the British style of fighting. They have been in the trenches for months during which time both were wounded, the United States army has not taken them back. They came here wearing their American service ribbons on British uniforms.

American officers were surprised to learn that these two soldiers in the King's uniform were Americans. Manning met some of his old comrades on the United States Infantry and they could scarcely believe that the Canadian soldier was the man they campaigned with in the Philippines.

In London I knew scores of American soldiers who simply could not wait for the United States to declare war on the Boche and so joined the British. They ran a bluff—expecting only that their own country would be glad to have them back as instructors when we entered the war. By this time many of those fellows have been killed or badly wounded.

Lieut. A. H. Pannill, a Chatham, Virginia, boy, won the British Military Cross at the battle of Vimy Ridge on last Easter Monday by sheer bravery and leadership. He was wounded, and after recovering, joined the Royal Flying Corps. Today I received a letter from him saying:

"I am trimmed up in bed with both legs up in the air in a sling. It seems years since I came to France with the Royal Flying Corps in the middle of July. I have helped bring down several Hunns and took part in the 'low strafes' on Aug. 15, flying low behind the lines, shooting up and dispersing troops, transports and artillery. The machine guns on the ground were as thick as hornets, squirting lead at us like fountain pens from every shell hole. I came out all right but they got me a few days later. Some-

my contacts were shot away and we crashed to the ground behind our lines. I don't see why we weren't killed outright but outside of having some bruises and both thighs fractured I am O. K. I am very comfortable and hope soon to be granted leave to the United States and Canada."

Manning told me that Frank Burr, of Cleveland, a Canadian lieutenant, broke into tears as Manning said good-bye on the night he took the train for the American camp.

Burr was just going up to the trenches again after a short rest. From day to day he had been hoping to get word of his transfer to the American Army—his own Army. It didn't arrive.

Burr is one of the very last of the Americans who fought in the so-called Lost Legion of Americans. The rest have been either killed or incapacitated for life.

Our Army here needs instructors so badly that British and French soldiers are carrying on the work. In the British Army there are scores of Americans—their number is dwindling daily—who want to offer their skill, and their lives to the country.

A legal technicality bars them and deprives our Sammies here of their sympathetic instruction.

DUKE SHIELDS, GRAMPAN, DROPS DEAD ON STREET

Duke Shields, a resident of Grampian, dropped dead Tuesday morning while on his way to his work at the Stronach brick yard. Mr. Shields was in front of the residence of Newton reeman, in Grampian, when he fell to the ground. He was carried into a building nearby, but life was extinct when a physician examined him.

Shields was a widower, his wife having died some time ago.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

WIFE OF FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Elizabeth McCrea Connelly, wife of Hugh L. Connelly, formerly of Clearfield, passed peacefully into rest eternal at the South Side hospital in Pittsburgh, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, aged about 42 years.

She had been in the hospital for several months and about six weeks ago came north from her home in St. Petersburg, Florida, for medical treatment and to consult a specialist.

She was removed to the South Side hospital some two weeks ago and since that time her decline was very rapid and the end came yesterday afternoon. The cause of her death was Bright's disease.

She is survived by her husband, one son and two daughters, her mother Mrs. W. S. McCrea, and two brothers, all of St. Petersburg, Fla.

The funeral will be held from her late home at 913 Union avenue, North Side, Pittsburgh, Monday morning with interment in Catholic cemetery at Butler, Pa.

TO DARKEN HAIR
APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural
Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

A. W. Lee, Jr., left on a business trip to Indianapolis, Ind. He will make the return trip overland.

Tell Your Wife
Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers.

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn pestered men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plasters. Yes! Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic.

A small bottle of Frez, one cost but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus, and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Freezone dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep a tiny bottle handy on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

Samplers

Seventy years ago Whitman began making candy. Seventy years' experience in candy making goes into every box of candy that leaves their factory, think of it!

The Sampler is the climax to these years of candy making and its evident from the tasty bits of sweets contained therein.

Fashion Hints By Margaret Mason

By Margaret Mason
(Written for United Press)
Where's Gwendolin and Ametrude?
Mehitable, Sabina?
Where's Araminta, Merribelle and likewise Clementina?
They are fussy names of yore,
"The fashion's change 'tis plain,
For now the very smartest names
Are Ann, Sue, Betty Jane.

New York, Nov. 2.—Changing fashions don't stop at the cut of your coat or the shape of your hat. No indeed they invade the sanctity of the home and dictate the style of your furniture and the color of your curtains, the size of your calling cards and the monogram on your stationery. Even your real name isn't safe from the meddling of the mode.

There are a few women who object to changing their last name for a husband's but I have yet to see a woman who rebelled at changing her first name if it didn't conform to the prevailing mode.

There are period names just as there is period furniture and you can almost figure out a woman's real age by her name if she isn't smart to furnish it up a bit and make it over to suit the present day styles.

In our Grandmother's day a female was hopelessly without the fashionable pale unless her name boasted at least three syllables. Then there was the era when you were lost unless you possessed at least two cognomens like Eliza Jane or Mehitable Anne or Henrietta Hester.

Bessies, Jennies, Fannies, Annes, Susies, Birdies, Nellies and Nannies had an awful (and I use awful advisedly) vogue about thirty-five years ago and in more recent years we were called but not chosen perhaps as Geraldine, Gwendolin, Ernestine, Albertina, Georgiana, Evelyn, Evangelina and Isabella.

Clarissa, Araminta, Arrabella, Sophia, Euphemia and Clementina flourished midst Victorian crewl work, porcelain cats and china dogs, and although we have swung around to a fashionabl passion for those Victorian knick knacks, we haven't gone so far as to work up enough enthusiasm to take back the Victorian names.

Rather we have gone back to the plain name of the one syllable period, and all the brand new infants of my acquaintance have been duly dubbed Ann, Jane, Susan, Betty, Nancy, Sally and Nell, while three have succumbed to the predelection for two to one with the quaintly euphonious cognomens of Betty Jane, Polly Ann and Mary Ellen.

Age has withered and customs staled the infinite variety of floral names so that Lily, Rose, Pansy, Myrtle, Ivy, Fern, Violet, Mayblossom and Daisy are forced to smell as sweet by any other name if they would be fashionable.

Items of thought for names, such as Pearl, Ruby, Opal, Jewel and Diamond have been put away into the jeweled casket of discard and Faith, Hope, Charity, Joy, Delight, Patience, Constance, Prudence, are now found only in the family Bible—that is of course if you can find it.

In Inez Haynes Irwin's newest book "The Lady of Kingdoms," one of the characters, whose rightful name is Eliza, smartly spells it backwards and thereby revels in the up-to-date handle of Azile.

I know a fashionable woman who has successively rung all the changes on her name through the different name periods from her infancy up to maturity. She has been successfully and fashionably Jane, Jennie, Janet and now is content to relapse again modestly to Jane.

Isn't a bit fashionable to bear a name even faintly suggestive of things Teutonic these days. That is why a paragraph in the day's news announces that Tracy Einstein, Dr. Schwartz, Albert Hosenfeld and Avron Brookheim have had their names changed respectively to Tracy Cullen, Dr. Blake, Albert Redfield and Andrew Brooks.

Naturally a pretty maiden doesn't yearn to have a recourse to the law to have her last name changed. She prefers to let her fiancé do it with a wedding ring and white ribbons instead of a lawyer's fee and red tape.

But when it comes to her first name if some misguided parent has wished Annetta or Susanna, on her at birth, she can perform a little operation on a couple of syllables and emerge modestly, Ann or Sue, without the aid of a party of the second part.
